

Second Opinion

Objectively looking at your own business is hard. All parents think their kids are gorgeous, and all entrepreneurs think their businesses are perfect.

Not all of the www.SmallBusinessSolver.com modules will be easy for you to complete yourself, as it is sometimes hard to be objective about your business. If you ever run into a module that you are finding challenging, get some help!

Ask anyone that you respect and trust about how they would approach the module (or any challenge that you may have) and you will probably be surprised by their point of view.

TIP: Looking objectively at your own company is one of the hardest things to do.

Business Solver Modules:

- ❖ Getting A Mentor
- ❖ Getting The Most Out of a Mentor

Remember –
stay open minded!

