

Full-Time Or Bust

Being an entrepreneur on a part-time basis is a very common way to start. Most people believe that entrepreneurs are extremely risky, but they are often risk adverse. Many do not even gamble in Las Vegas!

They only move forward with a concept that they are pretty sure is going to be successful. And sometimes they mitigate risk by working on their company a on part-time basis until there are enough sales to dedicate 100% of their time to it.

TIP: One of your goals should be to become 100% committed to your company.

Business Solver Modules:

- ❖ Action Plan
- ❖ Time Management
- ❖ Creating Your Vision

Your business is 99% successful because of who YOU are. If you are only committed to it part-time, it will be only be partially as successful as you want it to be. Have you been working at your business for a few months now? Are you full time yet? If not, when will you switch over? Do you have a plan?

Your goal should be to become 100% committed eventually... are you?

